SOMRUS COFFEE CREAM LIQUEUR

Analysis

Five years ago we reviewed the first Somrus Liqueur, Indian Cream (it has since been renamed Chai) and we were instant fans. In 2020 they released an equally delicious Coffee Cream Liqueur. It's made with coffee and chicory with real dairy cream from Wisconsin in a decadent base of Caribbean Rum. It's made in the USA with all natural ingredients. We love how the Somrus Coffee feels lively and vibrant on the palate while also being rich and creamy.

Tasting Note

Viscous and creamy with a mocha color. The nose is filled with the aromas of a boutique cafe with scents of freshly roasted coffee supported by notes of mocha and milk chocolate with hints of chicory. The palate is in full agreement with the nose delivering a lush and silky cream and coffee-driven core with waves of chocolate, spice, and sweet Rum rising on the finish. This is a rich and mouth-filling liqueur with a surprising vibrancy that keeps it from becoming heavy or cloying.

How to Enjoy

Serve Somrus Coffee chilled or over ice. It is great in desserts, in coffee, or tea. Use Somrus Coffee in any cocktail called for coffee Liqueur.
