

Since
2006

Sean Ludford's BevX.com

BEVX REPORT

June
2020

TABLAS CREEK PATELIN DE TABLAS ROSÉ PASO ROBLES 2019

Analysis

The grapes for this delicious and classic rosé are sourced from four appellations in Paso Robles. The 2019 vintage started off rainy with a slightly later than usual bud break followed by a cool start of summer that finished with an ideal harvest. It look as though the fruit intensity in 2019 is high so this should play out in later releases from the vintage. This Grenache-dominated rosé (76% Grenache, 19% Mourvedre, and 5% Counoise) is fermented and rested in stainless steel to retain its fresh flavors. Patelin de Tablas Rosé is redolent of great Southern Rhone and Provence rosés that feature fresh red fruits with bright, fresh acidity. While many of our old reliable rosé wines from Provence have disappointed in recent years the Tablas Creek Rosés never fail to impress.

Cool Grade = A | Value Grade = B+

Tasting Note

Brilliant, light salmon color. The nose is moderately intense offering scents of kumquat and nectarine with supporting notes of wet stones, pomegranate, and sultanas. The palate confirms the nose delivering a red fruit-driven core with flavors of ripe apricot, orange peel, and mineral. The finish is tart and refreshing with sour red berry notes. Medium-bodied and perfectly balanced with a vibrant texture.

How to Enjoy

This beauty needs nothing but a glass but it's great with grilled or fried chicken, sushi, and smoked salmon.

Country: USA

Region: California

Appellation: Paso Robles

Varietal: Rosé Blend

Retail Price: $25

ABV: 13%

4/5
Stars

93 POINTS

MORE THAN THE SCORE

BEVX.COM

FIERCELY INDEPENDENT